With reference to the Ist Council's order supra it is submitted that proposals have been received from the Presidents of the Baroda & Sankheda Dbs. for modifying the order requiring the sanction of Govt. for transfers of Officials from one department to another as it causes is said to cause a great deal of trouble & correspondence in regard to transfers and promotions in the District Offices Estt. The main file which is necessary for dealing with these cases is tied up with Educational file No. 351-O in which a general question has been raised. As this question is still pending in Council the references cannot be detached at this stage & the file obtained. The other papers referred to above have been ordered to await the main file. May this also await the main file & be dealt with along with the other cases or a draft put up in the terms required by the Ist Committee.?
